Farmington Hills Foot and Ankle Specialist to continue practice in Sault Ste. Marie

Sault Ste. Marie, MI – Dr. Rajeev Sehgal has been making the 400 mile trip to Sault Ste. Marie for six years and plans to continue to do so as he watches his practice grow in Sault Ste. Marie. Local residents who have been visiting his office for the care of their feet and ankles are pleased to receive his care close to home.

Dr. Rajeev Sehgal is a Podiatrist, specializing in podiatric surgery, diabetic foot problems, custom orthotics, fractures of the foot and ankle, second opinions and much more. Dr. Sehgal currently makes visits to his Sault Ste. Marie office on the second and fourth Friday of every month. He is pleased to see his business grow and looks forward to helping patients at his current location, 146 W. Spruce, across from the War Memorial Hospital Emergency Department. “I have been here in the community since 2010. I have enjoyed all the wonderful patients I have met and treated”, says Sehgal. “I appreciate the confidence they have in me. I look forward to seeing many more patients in the future as my practice continues to grow”.

Dr. Sehgal works one on one with his patients, keeping them informed every step of the way, believing that informed patients are better prepared to make decisions regarding their health and well-being.
